Dear Readers,

I had went to bed earlier than usual the night of August 18, 2020 when I heard my phone vibrate on my nightstand. I normally don't check, but I felt an urging to see who it was. It was a text from Keith Hansen, giving me an update on Harvey Cochran, the Executive Director of the Georgia Dugout Club, who had just been put back into the hospital. I will never forget that text. Hansen said he had spoken with Harvey's son, Kip, who had said the doctor didn't expect Cochran to make it through the night. I knew Harvey had some health concerns, but I never expected that.

It took me a while to go to sleep and I didn't sleep well at all that night. The next morning, I received the news that Harvey had passed away in the overnight hours. To say it shook the high school baseball world was an understatement.

Cochran was more than a coach, more than an administrator, more than a leader of the Georgia Dugout Club. He was a friend, mentor and one of my biggest fans. When I talked about starting this magazine some 16 years ago, he was on board. And he always believed in me.

It will be weird not seeing him at the 2021 Coaches Clinic, but somewhere I know his spirit and legacy will live on. He touched too many people and planted too many positives. Those seeds won't fall on rocks and not grow. I can't think of anybody more deserving to dedicate this 2021 magazine to than Harvey Cochran, who I will miss dearly.

Sincerely,

Tim Morse

Class 7A Top 15

1 NORTH PAULDING

The Wolfpack had the ingredients to make a run at the state championship series last year before the coronavirus pandemic shut down the season. They had already beaten teams like Houston County, Riverwood, Hart County and Thomasville in two weekends of the Georgia Dugout Club Tournament. In addition, they defeated LaGrange, Buford and DeSoto Central of Mississippi to win the prestigious LaGrange Toyota Invitational.

North Paulding's top pitching trio of right-handers Mitchell Heer and Jake Hembree and left-hander Dylan Rhadans, the backbone of last year's team, return and can carry this team as far as they want to go. Simply put, it will be tough to beat the Wolfpack in a three-game series. There are other players that will help carry the load. Outfielder Davis Rowell, first baseman/pitcher Tyson Benford and versatile senior Logan Lynch will be expected to pick up from where they left off last year. Catcher Bryson Taylor and catcher/infielder Charlie Seigel also return as well as a strong senior class.

In North Paulding's short existence, they have made the state quarterfinals three times. This should be the year they move past that round and contend for a state title.

2 PARKVIEW

The Panthers had already won 13 games before the coronavirus pandemic shut down the season in 2020. They lost their top 1-2 pitching punch of Miles Garrett and Xander Stephens, but the Panthers will reload and are expected to make another deep postseason run. Parkview may not boast as many big names as in the past, but don't let that fool you. This team is talented.

Instead of relying on shutdown pitching like they have for the past five seasons, Parkview's offense should light up the scoreboard early and help give its young pitching rotation time to develop. By the end of the season, look for the Panthers to still be around.

3 BROOKWOOD

The Broncos have the pitching and the offense to challenge for a state championship. Pitching-wise, right-hander Carter Bailey, Dylan Lonergan, Josh Sosa and Holden LaCour and lefty Jonathan Jaime will be the backbone of this year's team. And the offense won't be bad either.

4 WOODSTOCK

No question, this will be Woodstock's best team since they finished as the Class 7A state runner-up in 2017. The Wolverines have the pitching and the offense to make a title run. This should be a fun team to watch, especially with Preston Gunnell and Kameron Douglas leading what should be an explosive offense.

5 WALTON

The Raiders have the offense and playmakers to keep pace with anybody. But will their inexperienced pitching rotation step forward? If that happens, Walton should have their best season since winning the state title in 2016.

6 GRAYSON

When you have players like Justin Bogard, Bodie Eilertson and Henry Hunter, it will be hard not to win games. A strong senior class is back as the Rams should be dangerous.

7 MOUNTAIN VIEW

This could potentially be the best Mountain View team in school history. Outfielder Kenny Mallory will be exciting to watch again.

8 MILL CREEK

The Hawks lost a lot, but when you have returning players like pitcher Kyle Beaty and shortstop Tim Simay, things have to be looking up.

9 ETOWAH

The Eagles have a returning lineup that will be dangerous. They just need a few experienced pitchers.

10 NORTH GWINNETT

The coronavirus pandemic punished North Gwinnett in a year they were favored to win the state title. The Bulldogs return enough leftovers to still be in the Top 10.

11 LAMBERT

The Longhorns' roster is loaded with seniors and some talented juniors. This could be coach Rick Howard's best team at Lambert.

12 NORTH FORSYTH

After losing top pitcher Anthony DiMola to graduation, the Raiders have two more lefties ready to carry the load – Florida State commit Brett Barfield and Jess Ackerman. They alone will keep the Raiders in the chase.

13 DENMARK

The Danes jumped three classifications after finishing as the Class 4A state runner-up in 2019. There are plenty of leftovers remaining from that team. This team will be trouble.

14 COLLINS HILL

The Eagles have some of the best starting pitchers in Region 8-7A. Collins Hill won't be a pushover.

15 HILLGROVE

The Hawks will start slowly, but they will be back in the hunt by the end of the season.

Others to watch: (Alphabetical Order) Campbell, Cherokee, Colquitt County, East Coweta, Newnan, Norcross, Peachtree Ridge, West Forsyth

REGION 1-7A

Class 6A Top 15

1 BUFORD

Here's a quick trivia question. Who has the nation's top prospect for the Class of 2022 and three major Division I signees on its baseball team? If you guessed the Buford Wolves, you would be correct.

There may not be a team in the state this year with more talent than Buford. Right-hander Dylan Lesko, the country's top junior prospect, headlines a strong pitching rotation that includes right-handers Riley Stanford and Florida State signee Treyton Rank. And the Wolves have more proven arms waiting for their chance to shine.

Offensively, the Wolves got richer in the offseason when former Brookwood standout Brant Baughcum, former Thomasville High School all-state catcher Nathan Smith and Nebraska signee Jackson Brockett transferred to the school. To put it in simple terms, this program is loaded and will not only be one of the top programs in Georgia but in the nation as well.

2 HOUSTON COUNTY

It might be hard to top the 2016 Houston County pitching trio of Tony Locey, DL Hall and Tanner Hall that helped the Bears win their last state title. But this year's pitching rotation could be similar with Division I signees Coleman Willis and Brodie Chestnut leading a rotation that also will include Trent Ringer, Treyson Hughes, Gage Harrelson and Andrew Dunford.

While the senior class is impressive, look for some underclassmen to help play major roles. Harrelson is committed to Texas Tech, while sophomores Andrew Dunford and Drew Burress are ready to shine. This program should be among the top ones for many years to come.

3 CARROLLTON

The Trojans were 13-0 before last season ended. Carrollton will have its best team since winning a state championship in 2014. Pitching will be the backbone with all-state performer Colton Cospers as well as Eli Runyan and Samuel Simpson leading the way. But the Trojans won't just be a pitching machine. They have an offense as good as advertised with catcher Bear Madliak and Parker Willis returning.

4 ALLATOONA

The Buccaneers have more pitching than some small colleges which will make them tough to beat in a three-game series. Right-hander Logan McGuire and lefties Fisher and Hunter Paulsen anchor a talented and deep rotation. The offense also has the ability to put up some big numbers.

5 POPE

The Greyhounds don't have a 1-2 pitching punch to shut down the opponents this year – at least not yet. But Pope has plenty of talent to make another run at a championship.

6 WINDER-BARROW

One thing is for sure – Winder-Barrow should be a fun team to watch in 2021. They return one of the nation's top prospects in shortstop/pitcher Brady House and twins Andrew and Andreus Lewis. The Bulldogs have flirted with deep playoff runs recently. This spring will be time for them to put it together.

7 RIVER RIDGE

After a couple of rebuilding seasons, River Ridge is back. The offense will keep the Knights in the hunt until their pitching staff matures.

8 KENNESAW MOUNTAIN

The Mustangs will be a dangerous team once all their young talent matures. Kennesaw Mountain won't be a team to be taken lightly.

9 DALTON

The Catamounts won't be flying under the radar this spring. Dalton has plenty of young talent that will help them return to the top after a few rebuilding seasons recently.

10 JOHNS CREEK

Last year was Johns Creek's year before the shutdown. They won't be as experienced, but they are talented. The Gladiators could be dangerous.

11 GLYNN ACADEMY

The Red Terrors were 12-2 last year before the season was interrupted. Just about all of that talent returns – a year older and maturer.

12 RICHMOND HILL

The Wildcats could be the sleeper in Class 6A. Richmond Hill returns enough pitching and offense to be lethal. And the scary part is that they are still a very young team.

13 EAST PAULDING

The Raiders lost standout pitcher Jackson Phipps to graduation, but East Paulding will be back in the hunt – and be a tough team to beat.

14 LEE COUNTY

The young Trojans have a lot of talent returning and will be there at the end. Keep an eye on them.

15 VALDOSTA

After a rebuild in 2020, the Wildcats will be back, especially with a senior class that will be led by Elijah Guilliams, Lamonte Lindon and Cooper Samples.

Eight starters are back, including senior pitching duo of Coleman Willis and Brodie Chestnutt. The underclassmen are also talented, including Texas Tech commit Gage Harrelson and sophomore standout Andrew Dunford.

Class 5A Top 15

1 BLESSED TRINITY

The roster isn't littered with the usual onslaught of college and professional prospects, but don't mistake Blessed Trinity for a rebuilding team in 2021. These guys will be tough to beat as usual. The Titans' roster is loaded with upperclassmen, and a strong group of seniors will help Blessed Trinity again rank among the state's elite teams.

Stocky right-hander and Auburn University signee DJ Radtke anchors a talented group of pitchers that will also consist of right-hander Joseph Chambers and Jake Lankie. Meanwhile, athletic shortstop Michael Mitchler returns to lead an offense that can also hit for contact or power.

A move up in classification won't have an effect on the Titans. They will still rank among the state's best.

2 STARR'S MILL

Without question, this should be the best Starr's Mill team since the Panthers finished as the state runner-up in 2009. This team will have the pitching and the offense to make a run. If pitcher Eli Jones can return from an injury, the Panthers will have one of the top pitching trios in the classification with Jones, a right-hander, and preseason all-state selections Daniel Courtney and Declan Dun. That kind of pitching will make it tough on any opponent in a three-game series.

Offensive-wise, All-American outfielder Thad Ector will be one of the top players to watch. He was hitting .579 with five doubles in 13 games before the coronavirus pandemic shut down the season last year. Ector and power-hitting catcher Sean White as well as infielder Chay Yeager return to lead an offense that could put up plenty of impressive numbers. There's no other way to put it. This is the Panthers' year.

3 LOGANVILLE

The Red Devils were chasing a fourth consecutive state title before the shut down last year. Loganville plans to continue that chase this spring. No school in GHSA history has won four straight state titles since Richmond Academy won six straight from 1951 to 1957, which remains a state record. The Red Devils have the talent to make another run at a state title.

4 CALHOUN

This should be Calhoun's best team since their last state championship in 2010. The Jackets return enough offensive firepower with John Andrew Cash, Parker Lester and Dante Morton leading the way to support a strong pitching rotation led by Hagan Banks and Bryse Ingle. This is a talented team that will be tough to stop.

5 CARTERSVILLE

The Purple Hurricanes were supposed to be rebuilding in 2020. Expect them to return to their usual winning ways in 2021. Cartersville has enough ingredients to make a deep postseason run. Stay tuned.

6 HARRIS COUNTY

The Tigers' roster is full of proven playmakers. With a standout pitching staff led by Cole Mathis, Nick Morgan and Tanner Cotton, Harris County has to like its chances.

7 NORTHSIDE-COLUMBUS

A bump up in classification won't hurt the Patriots. There's enough left over from their state championship squad in 2019 to keep them in contention.

8 GREENBRIER

The Wolfpack have two of the best players in the classification in pitcher Brayden Collett and versatile David Bell. Those two will keep the Wolfpack in the hunt.

9 WAYNE COUNTY

After a pair of rebuilding seasons, Wayne County will be back. This team has enough pitching to give any team a challenge.

10 LOCUST GROVE

The young Wildcats lost a lot to graduation, but there will be a youth movement going on at the school this spring. Sophomore Connor Crisp and Bransen Powell will help Locust Grove be a contender.

11 COFFEE

The Trojans continue to build something special in Douglas. Is this the year they turn the corner and make a run? Keep an eye on this program.

12 DECATUR

There's not many teams that lost what Decatur did. But there's not many programs that lost what Decatur did and still can be ranked among the Top 15. The young Bulldogs will still be tough.

13 OLA

The Mustangs have been one of the state's more consistent programs the past five years. Look for that trend to continue this spring.

14 WALNUT GROVE

The Warriors have been as good as advertised recently. They will be strong again in 2021.

15 WOODWARD ACADEMY

The War Eagles have some raw and unproven talent. When they get some experience, look out.

A good mixture returns, including five starters. Pitcher/first baseman Scotty Smith, pitcher/outfielder Peyton Posey and catcher/pitcher/outfielder Carter Heath return to give Woodland a strong nucleus to build around.

Class 4A Top 15

1 NORTH OCONEE

The Titans feel like they have some unfinished business to take care of after falling in the decisive game of the state semifinals in 2019, then last season getting canceled because of the coronavirus pandemic. When you have dual-sport athletes like Clemson signee Bubba Chandler returning, that alone will help you be a contender. But North Oconee returns more than just Chandler. While the two-sport star is an excellent shortstop, he will help anchor a pitching staff that returns right-handers Ben Stuart, Carter Freeman, Cole Evilsizor, Tanner Evilsizor and Gavin Black as well as left-hander Joe Waddell.

With all the pitching, one might wonder if the Titans can produce offensively. North Oconee returns enough that they should be able to keep the heat off the pitching rotation. Chandler might not see many good pitches, but that will open the door for some others to have banner offensive seasons. David Wiley, Phillip Ard, Tanner Dempsey and Black will make it tough on opposing pitchers.

North Oconee has never played for a state baseball championship. They got close two years, coming within a game when they lost to eventual state champion Northside-Columbus in the semis. But this is definitely the Titans' year.

2 FLOWERY BRANCH

The Falcons lost one of the state's top 1-2 pitching combos of Zander Sechrist and Andrew Armstrong to graduation. That will hurt, but Flowery Branch has enough back to make life miserable for its opponents in Class 4A. It may just be a different kind of Flowery Branch team, one that will play small-ball until its pitching staff matures. The Falcons have enough offensive standouts to be dangerous.

Look for this team to be tough to beat in 2021.

3 MARIST

It's tough to bet against the War Eagles, who return a lot of talent after losing a wealth of players to graduation. But look for this year's edition to pick up from where last year's group left off. And as usual, look for Marist to make a strong run in the postseason.

4 JEFFERSON

The last time the Dragons were in Class 4A three years ago, they couldn't be stopped enroute to a state championship. A few holdovers remain from that team as the Dragons will be tough again.

5 WEST LAURENS

There might not be a Class 4A school in South Georgia that has more pitching than West Laurens. If the Raiders can be consistent on offense, they should be able to go a long way.

6 LAGRANGE

The Grangers were rolling until the coronavirus pandemic stopped the 2020 season. With power-hitting outfielder Will Alford back, look for LaGrange to pick back up from where they stopped.

7 COLUMBUS

A heavy dose of seniors will help Columbus High have its best season since they last won a state championship in 2012. The Blue Devils have the experience and talent to make a strong run.

8 BENEDICTINE

Mr. Everything Carter Holton will help Benedictine be a contender. But the Cadets have more than Holton. A few more pitching arms could help Benedictine make a deep postseason run.

9 NORTHWEST WHITFIELD

The Bruins lost a good bit to graduation, including top pitcher Hank Bearden. But Florida commit Cade Fisher will take his place on the hill and Northwest shouldn't miss a beat.

10 MADISON COUNTY

After a couple of rebuild seasons, look for the Red Raiders to be back. And they are only going to get better.

11 PERRY

The Panthers, after some rebuilding seasons, are back and could be the state's sleeper in Class 4A. A good young group should help put Perry back into the state baseball spotlight.

12 MAYS

The Raiders feature one of the nation's top prospects for the Class of 2022 in Terrarr Johnson. He and Jeremiah Newman will keep Mays in the Top 15.

13 THOMAS COUNTY CENTRAL

After rebuilding in 2020, the Yellow Jackets will be tough in 2021. But the future may be a year away for its young but talented group.

14 BAINBRIDGE

Most of this team has been playing together for three seasons. This is their time to make a statement. And they will.

15 TROUP

The Tigers' offense is solid, they just need some more pitching.

The Lost Season - 2020

With the coronavirus pandemic shutting down the Georgia high school baseball season after five weeks of play, there were many programs across the state who believed they had a chance to hoist the state championship trophy. After the 2020 season was halted, fans could only speculate who the best team in each classification was. Here are our picks:

Class 7A

North Gwinnett: The Bulldogs had perhaps the most talented team in the classification, led by catcher Corey Collins, outfielder Josh Shuler and ace pitcher Brandt Pancer. The Bulldogs were off and running. They were 10-3 and had defeated three-time defending Class 5A champion Loganville and two-time defending Class 7A champion Parkview on opening weekend. Two of their three losses came in a California prep tournament against some of the nation's top programs. North Gwinnett certainly looked the part and was chasing the school's first baseball state title.

Parkview: The two-time defending Class 7A champions would have made another run at a state championship. Led by the 1-2 pitching punch of right-handers Miles Garrett and Xander Stephens, the Panthers' resume through five weeks included going 2-1 at the prestigious Perfect Game Showdown in Hoover, Ala. The Panthers had also taken down Loganville, Lassiter, Jefferson, Starr's Mill and Blessed Trinity. Their only losses were to North Gwinnett and Archbishop McCarthy of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. in the Perfect Game Showdown.

North Paulding: The Wolfpack started the season 0-2 after losses to lower classification powers in Blessed Trinity and Tattnall Square in the Georgia Dugout Club Tournament. But North Paulding won 12 of its next 13, including victories over Houston County, Hart County, Thomasville, Buford, Walton and Etowah. They also captured the prestigious LaGrange Toyota Invitational, going 3-1 with their only loss coming against Providence Christian of Jacksonville, Fla. The backbone was clutch offense and strong pitching from Mitchell Heer and Dylan Rhadans.

Others: Mill Creek and Brookwood

North Paulding had won 12 of its final 13 games before the shutdown.

Class 6A

Winder-Barrow: The Bulldogs were led by do-it-all Class of 2021 prospect Brady House, Hunter Marsh, Blake Friend and junior twins Andrew and Andreaus Lewis. They had the pitching and the offensive firepower. They were 11-4 with losses to Loganville, Peachtree Ridge, Alabama powerhouse Smiths Station and Mississippi power DeSoto Central. But Winder-Barrow had recorded impressive wins over Cartersville, Greenbrier and Decatur. They went 2-2 in the Perfect Game Showdown. This was going to be a fun team to watch, capable of putting up big numbers on offense. Were they good enough to win a state title? We think so, but none of us will ever know.

Pope: The Greyhounds were 9-4 with losses to Harrison, Etowah, South Forsyth and a region setback to Dunwoody. But Pope, as usual, beat the teams it was supposed to. It was a rebuilding season but even in a rebuild, the Greyhounds were good enough to win it all. With pitchers Reid Robertson and Nate Shipley as well as offensive catalysts James Tibbs, Blake Redman and Riley Frost, the Greyhounds would have been very tough to beat in a three-game set. And Pope was only going to get better.

Houston County: The Bears were 6-6 and had played a brutal schedule, but they simply had too much talent and to be specific, a lethal pitching rotation led by Georgia signee Jaden Woods, Coleman Willis and Brodie Chestnutt. Houston had lost to North Paulding and Blessed Trinity, then went 1-3 in the Perfect Game Showdown in Hoover, Ala. The Bears, however, believed they were turning the corner before the season got shut down.

Others: Allatoona and Greenbrier

Georgia signee Jaden Woods was a standout for Houston County.

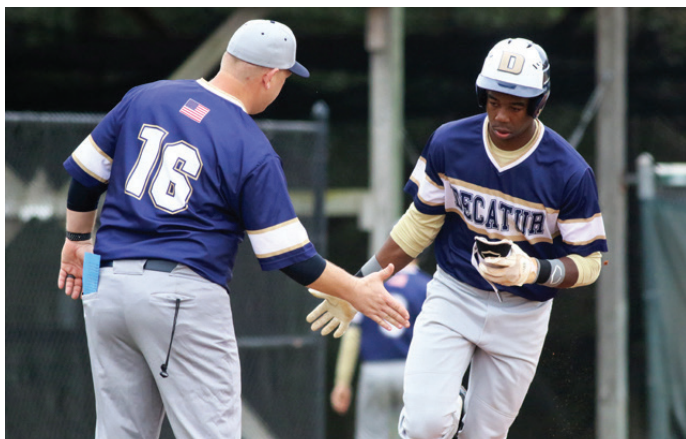

Class 5A

Buford: The Wolves took down four Class 7A schools to open the season and were 9-2 before the season was interrupted. Buford's only blemishes were a one-run setback to North Paulding in the championship game of the LaGrange Toyota

The Lost Season - 2020

Invitational, and a 1-0 loss to Mountain Brook (Ala.) in the Perfect Game Showdown, a place the Wolves went 3-1. It was going to be hard to beat a team that featured two of the nation's top prospects for the Class of 2022 in Dylan Lesko and Riley Stanford leading the way.

Decatur: Jordan Walker was a first-round draft pick by the St. Louis Cardinals and the power-hitting shortstop/pitcher was fun to watch, yet the Bulldogs had more than Walker. Jaylen Paden, Eddie Galatas and Jackson Hills were shutdown pitchers, while Walker, Lukas Clark and Marshall Toole led an explosive offense that was sure to put up big numbers. Decatur was 8-6 after a brutal schedule to open the season. The Bulldogs had the talent and could have won their first state baseball title since 1948.

Decatur and Jordan Walker were seeking their first state baseball title since 1948.

Loganville: The Red Devils were chasing history and it would have been fun to see if they made it. No team in the GHSA has won four consecutive state championships or more since Richmond Academy's state record seven straight from 1951-57. Loganville had lost a bunch, but somehow pitchers Caleb Garner, Riley Cruce and Dawson Coe would have kept them in it. Offensive heroes Dylan Strickland, Ian King, Brocker Way, Jackson Daniel and Daniel Braswell led an offense that was very consistent. The Red Devils were 7-5 with four losses coming to Class 7A schools.

Others: Carrollton and Ola

Class 4A

Blessed Trinity: Led by pitchers Dom Marcoccio, Trey Baker and DJ Radtke, the Titans were 12-4 with their only losses coming against Parkview, Lambert and a pair of Alabama prep powers in Smiths Station and Russell County. They recorded victories over Georgia powers North Paulding, Tattnall Square, Houston County and Loganville. They went 2-1 in the Perfect Game Showdown. The Titans haven't won a state baseball title since going back-to-back in 2014-15, but 2020 sure did look promising.

Flowery Branch: The Falcons were off to a 12-1 start with their only loss coming against Helena (Ala.). The Falcons, led by the two-headed pitching monster of Andrew Armstrong and Zander Sechrist, took down national powers Hoover and Cullman of Alabama, as well as Class 7A power North Gwinnett as well as region foe Marist. How good was this team? They ended the season on a five-game winning streak and appeared to be in postseason form. Sadly, we will never know if they would have won the school's first state baseball championship.

Northside-Columbus: The Patriots, the defending Class 4A champions, had most of their squad back, including pitchers Conner Sizemore, Will Graydon and standout reliever Hunter Poe. On offense, catcher Conner O'Neal, infielders Walt McConnell and Tray Richburg and Mack Williams returned. The Patriots returned enough to defend their title. They were 7-4 before the shutdown with a pair of losses to Alabama power Russell County, Montverde Academy of Florida and Desoto (Miss.) Central. The Patriots notched impressive wins over Decatur, Trinity Christian (Fla.) and Newnan.

Others: North Oconee and Marist

Class 3A

Westminster: The Wildcats were off to an 8-0 start and with the exception of a pair of victories over Class 2A power Callaway, Westminster had beaten teams either in Class 3A or higher. Versatile Parks Harber was a tough out, while the pitching staff that was led by Harber, Will Lybrook, Jonathan Morgan and Charlie Wickliffe was good enough to help the Wildcats challenge for their first state title since 2016. If they weren't championship material, they certainly played the part well.

Calhoun: The Yellow Jackets seemed to have a little bit of everything – shutdown pitching, clutch offense and excellent defense. They were 8-0 and had swept a pair of games from preseason Class 3A No. 1 Fannin County. Hagan Banks and Bryse Ingle led a strong rotation, while offensive catalysts Parker Lester and John Andrew Cash led an explosive offense. This would have been Calhoun's best team since they won the Class 2A title in 2010. Too bad we won't ever get to see how good this team could have really been.

Redan: The Raiders were off to a 12-4 start and had the pitching and the offense to go deep. Right-hander Donye Evans' mid-90's fastball was as good as advertised and the Raiders had the talent around him. Redan was good enough to beat higher classification programs like Kell as well as run-ruling Class 5A power Starr's Mill 13-3 in the Georgia Dugout Club Tournament. This was a fun team to watch.

Others: North Hall and Hart County

The Lost Season - 2020

Class 2A

Rockmart: They came from all over to scout pitcher Ty Floyd, who flirted with the MLB Draft but decided to honor his scholarship to LSU. But Rockmart was more than Floyd. Outfielders Reed Couch and CJ Culver as well as infielder/pitcher Brayden Cole and others were expected to lead the Jackets back to the state championship series after they finished as the Class 2A runner-up in 2019. They were 7-5 before the shutdown. Their resume included wins over Cartersville and Alabama power Hewitt-Trussville in the Perfect Game Showdown.

Thomasville: This was the Bulldogs' best chance to win their first state championship since 2000. Their three-headed pitching monster of Southern Mississippi signee Hurston Waldrep, Michigan signee Jaylen Jones and Jacob Bradshaw were as good advertised and had them off to an 8-4 start. Thomasville's Achilles heel was its inability to produce runs. The Bulldogs had scored some big wins over Class 3A Hart County in the Georgia Dugout Club Tournament as well as a win over Cook in the season opener. This club would have been tough to beat in a three-game set. How tough? We won't ever know.

Thomasville showed early that it would be a contender in Class 2A.

Vidalia: There may not have been a team playing better than Vidalia before the shutdown. The Indians were 11-1 and riding a nine-game winning streak. The good news is that the majority of the team comes back in 2021, but it still would have fun to see how far this team went. Their resume included a pair of wins over 2019 Class 3A state champion Pike County as well as a pair of wins over Callaway and Heard County. All-everything Landry Mead, Bryson Whited and Jordan Walden led the way, but with the emergence of pitchers Caden Spivey and Ty Dalley, this team may have surprised all of us.

Others: Jeff Davis and Elbert County

Class 1A Public

Gordon Lee: The Trojans had one of the best 1-2 pitching combos in the state in right-handers Jake Wright and Jake Poindexter. But the Trojans' offense, led by shortstop JD Day and catcher Brody Cobb, could score runs too. They were 8-2 with their only losses coming to Hart County and a 1-0 setback to Class 1A Private Saint Anne-Pacelli. Gordon Lee was chasing their third straight state title. They looked every bit like the team to beat before the coronavirus pandemic shut down the season.

Johnson County: Yes, 2020 was Johnson County's year, and they had been building for 2020 for some time. The Trojans have never won a state baseball championship and last year was their best shot. Behind dominating pitchers Adam Hooks and Brett Caneega as well as exciting players like Dra Darrisaw, the Trojans were going to go far. They were 9-0 and their last game before the shutdown was a 12-2 victory over Class 1A Private power Calvary Day.

Schley County: Constant rain in South Georgia kept Schley County from playing many games. They were 5-1-2 before the shutdown as the weather kept this team off-balanced. They had scored a pair of wins over Hawkinsville as well as Taylor County in region play. They also scored a big win over Class 3A Crisp County. It was hard to gauge just how good this team was to start the season, but somehow you had to figure Trent Bivins, Garrett Peavy and Dylan Taylor would have helped the Wildcats go deep – again.

Others: Wilcox County and Charlton County

Class 1A Private

Wesleyan: The Wolves were off to a 12-0 start and had beaten some very good teams including Hebron Christian, Prince Avenue Christian, Brookstone twice, Dunwoody, Saint Francis and Greater Atlanta Christian. Without a doubt, this was going to be their best team since they last captured a state championship in 2015. While the pitching of Wyatt Copeland, Jamie LaFramboise, Holden Wilder, Jalen Fulwood and James McCoy was good enough to lead the team to a deep run, the offense led by Charlie Taylor, Druw Jones and Cooper Blausner was exciting to watch.

Tattnall Square: As usual, Tattnall Square would have made a deep run. They were already off to an 11-4 start, including impressive wins over North Paulding, Cairo, Etowah, Redan, Savannah Christian and First Presbyterian Day. With right-handers Brooks Gorman and Dawson Brown leading the charge on the mound, it was going to be tough to score on the Trojans. This team was just getting warmed up and appeared ready to make another strong run – until the season unexpectedly got shut down.

Hebron Christian: The Lions had already shown they could play with the big boys, beating Jefferson, Strong Rock Christian, Lanier and Heritage-Conyers. They were 9-4 before the season was interrupted. A deep pitching staff was talented enough to take Hebron Christian as far as they wanted to go. Jackson Boyd and Mason Ashby were two key players that would have helped the Lions go deep.

Others: Savannah Christian and Strong Rock Christian

Class 3A Top 15

1 HART COUNTY

The Bulldogs have been building for this year for the past three seasons. After a run to the Class 3A semifinals in 2019, Hart County was off to a 10-4 start in 2020 before the season was stopped due to the coronavirus pandemic. If Hart County is going to bring a state baseball championship to Hartwell, this is a golden opportunity to do it.

The Bulldogs have more pitching than most teams in higher classifications. Right-hander Casey Tallent, a Clemson signee, and Will Dean form perhaps the state's top 1-2 pitching punch in any classification. Throw in versatile Trey Horton and Peyton Powell and some talented underclassmen, the Bulldogs will be tough to beat in a three-game set. Most of those guys will also help an offense led by outfielders Malachi Thomas, Rafe Maxwell and Paul Davis.

There's no other way to put it – this is Hart County's year.

2 NORTH HALL

If you're going to get the Trojans, you might want to do it this year. With a roster full of juniors, North Hall is only going to get better. Don't be surprised to see the Trojans make a deep postseason run and challenge for their first state baseball championship since 2017.

3 REDAN

If you think Redan is going to be rebuilding, think again. The Raiders have plenty of talent and shouldn't miss a beat despite losing top pitcher Donye Evans to graduation.

4 CHEROKEE BLUFF

The Bears begin their third baseball season with enough talent to contend for a championship – which championship depends on a solid group of seniors.

5 WESTMINSTER

The Wildcats felt like they had the ingredients to make a strong run at a state title in 2020. Westminster still has enough in 2021. Keep an eye on them.

6 RINGGOLD

After some growing pains, the Tigers are back and they will be tough to beat. A strong group of seniors could help them make a solid run in the postseason.

7 OCONEE COUNTY

Look for the Warriors to make a statement in Class 3A this spring. Oconee has enough returning to be the state's sleeper.

8 APPLING COUNTY

It's been a few years since Appling County had as much pitching as they do coming back this year. If the Pirates can produce on offense, look out.

9 LONG COUNTY

The Blue Tide has continued to improve under coach James Hobbs. This is the year they should reap some big benefits.

10 UPSON-LEE

The Knights have quietly continued to get better. Upson-Lee could be building something pretty special in Thomaston.

11 PIKE COUNTY

The defending Class 3A champions lost a ton. They return an excellent group that just needs time to grow and mature.

12 MARY PERSONS

Head coach Clae Mathis has made the Bulldogs annual contenders in region play since he took over. That won't change in 2021.

13 ROCKMART

Perhaps no team in Class 3A got raided as much as Rockmart. But don't feel sorry for the Jackets. They are still a dangerous team.

14 SANDY CREEK

Nick Pou's third season could be special, especially with players like Glenn Green and Jonathan Little leading the way.

15 MORGAN COUNTY

Coach Merritt Ainsie continues to keep the Bulldogs in the chase. That won't change in 2021.

MARY PERSONS BULLDOGS

Head Coach (s): Clae Mathis

Assistant Coach (s): Josh Ward, Blake Cannady, Cody Hunnicutt

2020 Record: 11-4

Season Outlook: Mary Persons' baseball program continues to get better and the Bulldogs are annually expected to contend for region titles and postseason berths. Mary Persons hopes to take it a step farther this spring. Five starters are back, including versatile senior Jaden Bankston and all-state shortstop Eric Snow. The lack of experienced pitching is a concern.

PEACH COUNTY TROJANS

Head Coach (s): Jeff Bailey

Assistant Coach (s): Craig Johnson, Keith Barker

2020 Record: 0-7

Returning Starters: INF/C Logan Giles (Sr., 6-0, 180, R/R); INF/RHP AJ Lee (Sr., 6-2, 220, R/R); INF/OF/RHP Jakob Harnist (Jr., 5-11, 180, R/R); INF/RHP Michael Kovitch (Jr., 5-7, 155, R/R); OF/INF/RHP Ashton Ennis (Jr., 6-1, 180, R/R); OF/INF/LHP Drew Bailey (So., 5-4, 140, L/L); OF/INF/RHP Christian Martin (So., 6-0, 180, R/R)

Top Newcomers: INF/C Colter Ginn (Fr., 5-11, 145, R/R); INF/RHP Bryce Harellson (Fr., 5-11, 125, B/R)

Season Outlook: The Trojans look to get things rolling after getting off to a slow start in 2020. The senior class is small, but the good news is that seven starters return. Two of those are infielder/catcher Logan Giles and infielder/pitcher AJ Lee. Peach will need some younger players to step up and contribute.

There is a lot of young talent on this year's club, eager for their chance to be in the spotlight. Seniors Carter Turkett and Kinkade Weaver return to lead the way. Turkett was promising on the mound before the season ended in 2020.

Season Outlook: A trio of seniors return to lead the way for the Indians who will be a relatively young team this spring. The lack of experienced pitching is a concern, but the good news is that outfielder Sean Swistek, third baseman/pitcher Chris Day and utility player Caleb Childs return.

Class 2A Top 15

1 LOVETT

The Lions won three state championships during the last decade, including two of the last five. Lovett has the ingredients to make another dominating run. But for a Class 2A school, Lovett will feature a pitching rotation that will be deep and talented, and keep the Lions in every game. A nice trio of right-handers, led by seniors Michael Hollingsworth and Owen McMurtrie and junior Will Prigge, lead the way. There are more pitchers that haven't garnered as much experience, but no question, they will help out along the way.

The offense is in very good hands as Northwestern signee Drewbie Pinkston and second baseman Christopher Kollme lead an offense capable of putting up big numbers. Underclassmen Kai Cunningham, Anderson Beaver and outfielder Logan Givens return as the Lions have a returning starter back at just about every position.

Lovett has won nine state baseball titles in its history and is tied with Americus for third all-time in the Georgia High School Association. Only Marist (13) and Columbus High (12) have won more baseball championships. The Lions could win No. 10 this spring.

2 VIDALIA

The Indians will chase their first state baseball title in nearly two decades this spring. But Vidalia could still be a year away from reaching their full potential. That is what makes this team so intriguing. Vidalia can be as good they want to be this spring. They have the pitching and the offense to be very dangerous.

3 FANNIN COUNTY

The Rebels were expected to contend for a state championship last season in Class 3A. Even though they lost a good bit, they return an excellent group and will contend in Class 2A. What has become a staple for Fannin – good pitching – will again lead the way. Left-hander Bradley Holloway and right-handers Brady Martin and Wyatt Rogers will be a tough trio to beat.

4 BREMEN

The Blue Devils have flashed potential and promise since dropping down to Class 2A three years ago. Bremen hasn't won a state championship yet, but the 2021 season is promising, especially with a load of seniors led by versatile Brooks Hardie.

5 CALLAWAY

The Cavaliers don't have many seniors, but don't take them for granted. Right-handed pitcher Justin Moore and a strong group of juniors will have Callaway in the chase.

6 JEFF DAVIS

A lot of youth will fill the Jackets' roster in 2021. But this program is used to winning. Don't let this team fool you. They may be rebuilding, but they will still be very good.

7 HARALSON COUNTY

The Rebels drop a classification, but plenty of talent returns. Right-hander Lane King and offensive catalyst Tucker Parrish will help Haralson County make the state playoffs.

8 BANKS COUNTY

The Leopards will throw a lethal pitching punch led by Tripp Williams and Ty Burchett at their opponents this spring. Something special may be brewing in this team in Homer.

9 ELBERT COUNTY

The Blue Devils could be the state's sleeper. But don't sleep on them. This team will be very good this season.

10 BACON COUNTY

The Red Raiders have quietly been very consistent the past few seasons, and this spring won't be any different. Bacon County will still be tough to beat.

11 COOK

The Hornets make their return to Class 2A after several seasons of playing in higher classifications. Lefty Landon Rentz and an explosive offense will keep them in the chase.

12 BLECKLEY COUNTY

The Royals should pick up from where they left off in 2019. Enough returns for Bleckley County to be a very dangerous team. Keep an eye on this group.

13 PACE ACADEMY

The Knights lost a lot, but any team that features a player like dual-sport star Jayden Thomas has to be a contender.

14 MODEL

New coach, no problem. As long as the Blue Devils have pitcher Rett Edwards, they will be tough.

15 FITZGERALD

After a rebuild in 2020, the Purple Hurricanes are back and ready to go. This team has a lot of talent and won't be sneaking up on anybody.

Class 1A (Public) Top 15

1 GORDON LEE

Since the Georgia High School Association split Class 1A into a public and private division in 2013, no team has won three state championships. That should change this season as Gordon Lee looks to break a tie with Schley County and Charlton County (who all have two titles each) for the most Class 1A Public titles. The Trojans lost a good bit, but Gordon Lee will still field a shutdown pitching staff that will be led by preseason All-Stater Jake Poindexter. The staff will also feature lefty Riley King and sophomore standout Bo Rhudy. Pitching will once again take the Trojans deep into the postseason.

The offense is missing some pieces, but there is more than enough returning to keep the Trojans in the chase. Versatile catcher Brody Cobb can play a little of everywhere and can certainly make things happen at the plate. Senior outfielders Cade Peterson and Griff Collins as well as infielder Cody Thomas all return. But when you have pitching like this team does, offense can take a backseat.

Don't be surprised to see Gordon Lee win its third straight Class 1A Public baseball championship this spring.

2 CHARLTON COUNTY

The loss of pitcher Trent Gray, who moved in the offseason, will hurt, but don't expect Charlton County to be down. In fact, the Indians are ready to bring another championship back to Folkston. And this group could certainly do that. Charlton has a returning player at just about every position, and players like Connor Nelson, Wade Rodeffer and Tristan Herring will make things look easy.

This team should be as good as advertised.

3 METTER

To put it in simple terms, Metter is going to be very good. How good depends on them. Only four teams in Class 1A Public have won state titles – Charlton County, Gordon Lee, Schley County and Treutlen. Metter could be the fifth.

4 SCHLEY COUNTY

A bunch of exciting players return and Schley County, as usual, will be among the state's elite. A new group of players are anxious to leave their mark.

5 BOWDON

The Red Devils are tired of taking second in region play behind Gordon Lee. Bowdon has the talent to once make a strong run, including a big senior class.

6 ACE CHARTER

This will be the best ACE Charter team in its short history. The Gryphons are ready to start playing for championships. And it could happen this spring.

7 WILCOX COUNTY

Last year was supposed to be the Patriots' year. Don't sleep on them this year. They could be just as good or even better.

8 COMMERCE

The Tigers have the ingredients to make a deep playoff run. With a big group of seniors back, look for Commerce to do just that.

9 IRWIN COUNTY

If you are going to get Irwin County, you might want to do it now. This young team is only going to get better.

10 TELFAIR COUNTY

The Trojans will have the offense to play with anybody. Their pitching staff needs some work though.

11 BRYAN COUNTY

It's been a while since the Redskins were mentioned among the state's top teams. Bryan County could be a very dangerous club this spring.

12 JOHNSON COUNTY

Even with all the players Johnson County lost, this team won't be down for long. They will be right back in the playoffs this spring.

13 CLAXTON

The Tigers were already going to be solid. The move-in of Cooper Yanzetich will make Claxton that much better. Stay tuned.

14 CLINCH COUNTY

The Panthers may go through some growing pains to start the season. But they will be tough by the end of the season.

15 HAWKINSVILLE

The Red Devils are that team that gives everyone problems. They will continue this spring.

Season Outlook: Irwin County will be a young team in 2021.

However, there is plenty of talent that just needs to mature.

Sophomores will be the bulk of the team, and there will be several to keep an eye on. Outfielder Evan Ross was promising as the team's leadoff hitter, while pitchers Bryce Clements and Cody Soliday were also promising. With some experience, this team could be dangerous.

Class 1A (Private) Top 15

1 WESLEYAN

The Wolves captured state titles in 2009, 2010 and 2015. Those championship teams are still talked about regularly in Wesleyan baseball history. However, if the 2021 team lives up to its hype, it could make prep baseball fans at the Norcross private school stop talking about past teams. This year's edition is loaded, full of big-time prospects and will be as good as any team the program has produced.

An excellent corps of seniors that include James McCoy and Jalen Fulwood is a good starting point when talking about this team's talent, but the Wolves welcome back shortstop Cooper Baluser and outfielder Druw Jones, two of the nation's top prospects in the Class of 2022. And the rich got richer when catcher Bryce Hubbard, a junior who has already committed to Mississippi State, moved with his parents to Georgia over the summer from California and enrolled at Wesleyan. He will make an immediate impact.

This is a team that will be fun and exciting to watch.

2 TATTNALL SQUARE

Since joining the Georgia High School Association in 2015-16, there hasn't been many occasions where the Trojans haven't started the Class 1A Private division as the preseason No. 1. By Tattnall standards, the 2021 season is a rebuilding one. But last time the school was rebuilding in 2017, they made it to the state championship series and finished as the state runner-up. Don't let these guys fool you. They return enough to challenge for another state championship.

3 FELLOWSHIP CHRISTIAN

The Paladins have been building for this year for quite some time. The senior class is huge, but the team's chemistry is what will make them tough to beat. Experience is also a plus.

4 SAINT FRANCIS

The Knights have as much dominant pitching as some Class 7A schools. This is a team to watch as they will only get better as its talent matures and develops.

5 BROOKSTONE

This should be Brookstone's best team since they made the Class 1A semifinals in 2004. There is plenty of talent coming back and opponents will get a strong dose of right-handed pitching.

6 STRONG ROCK CHRISTIAN

The Patriots lost a bunch, but a bunch returns. Pitchers Spencer Wilkins and Jack McCune will keep Strong Rock in the hunt.

7 FIRST PRESBYTERIAN DAY

A senior-laden group will help the Vikings contend again. They will be as good as advertised.

8 TRINITY CHRISTIAN

The Lions have a pile of returning talent and will be tough to beat. Keep an eye on this program.

9 HERITAGE

The Hawks, in their inaugural season in the GHSA, will prove their success in the Georgia Independent Schools Association was no fluke.

10 HEBRON CHRISTIAN

Last year was Hebron's year. But the Lions could have another special season in 2021.

11 SAVANNAH CHRISTIAN

The Red Raiders, by their standards, are rebuilding. They'll be fine by postseason time.

12 HOLY INNOCENTS'

The Golden Bears are always dangerous. This spring won't be an exception.

13 MOUNT PARAN CHRISTIAN

The Eagles have so much young talent on their roster. But when this team matures, look out.

14 ATHENS CHRISTIAN

The Eagles have an offense capable of doing big things. They will have to carry the load until the pitching staff matures.

15 PRINCE AVENUE CHRISTIAN

The Wolverines have enough returning to be lethal. They will be a program to keep an eye on.

Others to watch: (Alphabetical Order) Darlington, George Walton, Kings Ridge Christian, Mount Pisgah Christian, Providence Christian, Stratford, Walker, Whitefield Academy
